WE ARE HIRING !

CPR, BLS, and First Aid Instructors

Looking for EMTs, LVNs, or CNAs

$50 per instructional hour

LifeSaver CPR is looking for an EMT, LVN, CNA, paramedic (or other medical professionals) to be a CPR, BLS, and First Aid instructor. We are in need of instructors who are prompt, outgoing, have the ability to command the presence of a room while teaching and effectively impart knowledge to the students. LifeSaver CPR offers approximately 70 classes per month throughout the Northern California, the Central Valley, and Bay Area. Please email if interested in the position. FULL AND PART TIME INSTRUCTORS NEEDED.

As a small, family-owned business, we cannot offer medical or dental benefits, but we do offer many other opportunities. You will be teaching groups of people the essential skills which could help save another's life, you'll travel and see different industries, make connections, and meet new people. We offer consistent work with flexible hours.
